

Paint in the Lake District

With Jenny Wheatley RWS NEAC and Mike Chaplin RWS RE

April 26th-May 1st 2009

November 1st-6th 2009

Jenny and Mike have been leading 5 day painting breaks in the Lake District now for some time, and we are again returning to the Borrowdale Hotel in the Spring and Autumn of 2009 to run more small and intensive breaks. The Borrowdale Hotel is a family run hotel at the end of Derwent Water and the light in the early and later parts of the year can give some spectacular colours and painting possibilities. Course sizes are kept to a maximum of 16 with the guidance of two tutors and a small studio in which to base ourselves on the occasions when weather does not permit us to venture outside. Jenny is well-known for her love of and individual use of colour, while Mike is renowned for his loose, tonal paintings. We will be giving individual one-to-one tutoring, so it doesn't matter at what level of experience you find yourself, and you will find that each student learns greatly from the other as well as from the benefit of Mike and Jenny's knowledge and experience. You are welcome to use any painting materials with which you are most familiar, or this might be the perfect time to experiment and try something new while guidance is at hand! There will be daily critiques of the work produced and a chance to unwind over a good dinner in the hotel's restaurant. Included in the price is en suite accommodation in single occupancy rooms, tuition by both Mike and Jenny, breakfast, morning coffee, lunch, tea and dinner. All you need to do is to pay any bar bills that you might accrue! The cost of the course, arriving after lunch on Sunday and leaving after lunch on Friday is £750 per person. Non-painting partners are welcome to join you at a reduced cost of £600. A deposit of £150 is required at the time of booking. (Due 1st March and 15th September respectively.)
